Personal Statement

This section is meant to assess your skills and motivation to be part of the Future Energy Leaders' programme and contribute to the work of the community. Your application will be reviewed by the Nomination Committee of the FEL Board, which consists of FEL members representing the Council's regions.

Please reply to the following questions (max 150 words per question):

1. Why would you like to join the programme?

2. How do your background, experience and skills relate to the World Energy Council and the FEL Programme's objectives? What unique skill/quality/experience do you think you can bring to the programme?

3. An active network of committed FELs is essential to achieve the Council's vision. How would you hope to contribute to this during your term as a FEL?

4. What are your expectations of the programme?

5. Is your organisation supporting your participation in the programme? If yes, how?

6. The FEL-100 programme requires time, commitment and flexibility. Some periods require more engagement than others. Please describe how you will manage this commitment in line with any existing commitments (work, other activities, programme memberships) that you may have.
